

The California Classic 2010

Liability Waiver & Responsibility (Please Read & Sign The Following)

The undersigned understands and agrees that the California Alpaca Affiliate (CALPACA), and Alameda County Fairgrounds, and their officials, officers, employees, agents, members and affiliates shall not be responsible for any loss, damage, or injury to any person, property, or animal which may be caused by them directly or indirectly for any reason during this event. The undersigned also agrees to hold harmless the above parties for any expenses or liabilities incurred directly or indirectly as a result of this event, including but not limited to attorney fees, court costs, medical costs, or veterinary fees.

The undersigned further understands and agrees that all on-site animals must be sound, healthy, and free of internal and external parasites. All on-site alpacas require a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection completed not more than 30 days prior to the last date of the show (3/27/10 or later). All alpacas entering the show grounds must show proof of a negative PCR test (virus not found) for BVD (VI completed prior to 1/1/10 accepted). Test results must be on the certificate of veterinary inspection. Exhibitors from out of state are required to adhere to the California State animal transportation regulations.

The undersigned has read, completed and signed their Mandatory Exhibitor Disclosure Form, and it is included with their Registration. The undersigned has read the California Classic “Show Information”, “Health and Microchip Requirements” and “Vet Check Procedures” in its entirety and agrees to abide by the rules and procedures set forth.
